

Article published Sep 20, 2006

SWIMMING

Rams shine at Invite

Riverview's Showalter wins 200- and 500-free at Patriot Invitational to lead Lady Rams to 5th.

BY PHIL DENIS
CORRESPONDENT

ALTAMONTE SPRINGS -- Led by Riverview sophomore Corinne Showalter's two easy victories in the 200- and 500-yard freestyle events, the Lady Rams placed fifth in the girls division at the Lake Brantley High Patriot Invitational. Riverview placed sixth overall and the Ram boys finished 11th.

Booker's girls team was ninth; the Tornadoes did not enter a boys team. Sarasota Christian finished 15th in the boys, 20th in the girls and 18th overall.

Showalter teamed with Blair Collins, Chelsea Gillespie and Caitlin Hudak for third place in the 200-free relay and Rocky Raybon, Collins and Hudak for fourth in the 400-free relay.

Riverview's 200-medley relay team of Lauren Piper, Ashley Knoch, Kelly Kane and Gillespie finished third while Piper earned a second in the 200-individual medley and a third in the 100-backstroke.

Booker's Ashley Largo placed third in the 200-free and fourth in the 500-free and Lady Tornadoes teammate Kata Fodor was fifth in the 500-free. Booker's 400-free relay of Kelsey Clark, McKayla Lightbourn, Fodor and Largo placed seventh in the 400-free relay.

In the boys division, Sarasota Christian's Austin Detra was third in both the 200- and 500-frees and Riverview's Drew Crete was fourth in the 100-back and sixth in the 200-IM.

---